SG Patrick Ugo Anyawoke delivering awards to recipients

December 27, 2017, Los Angeles, CA — OIUSA, the National Organization of Ikwerre People in the United States of America, and Canada, is pleased to announce that 8 Ikwerre students pursuing undergraduate studies at various universities, mostly within River State, have been chosen to receive tuition scholarship for the 2017-2021 academic years. The selected recipients are: Blessing D. Amadi - Ignatus Ajuru University, Physics (Emuoha LGA); Nneka V. Orlu - River State UST, Chemical/Petrochemical Engineering (Emuoha LGA); Joseph A. Henry - River State UST, Electrical Engineering (Ikwerre LGA); Jullian C. Williams - UniPort, Mathematics (Ikwerre LGA); Raphael C. Owhonda - UniPort, Linguistics & Communications (Obio/Akpor LGA); Zeph E. Worlu - River State UST, Mathematics (Obio/Akpor LGA); Destiny O. Amadi - UniPort, Microbiology Technology (Port Harcourt LGA); and Christian C. Chindah - UniPort, Plant Science & Biotechnology (Port Harcourt LGA). These 8 students were chosen from a pool of more than 300 applicants and on the basis of their excellent performance in a written examination conducted as part of the selection process, school and field of study, and a statement of educational and career goals. OIUSA recognizes the importance of investing in these young adults who are not only seeking for knowledge and personal growth, but to improve their communities and society at large. Each of these OIUSA scholarship winners has demonstrated a clear commitment based on their chosen field of study to improving their communities while making the world a better place for all.
